Hospices de Beaune Wine Auction weekend: For One Night Only: The Cité in Beaune Becomes an Exclusive Fine Dining Destination

Beaune, 30 October 2026

On Friday 13 Novembre, to mark the Hospices de Beaune wine auction weekend, the Cité des Climats et vins de Bourgogne is opening its doors to the public for an exceptional gastronomic experience. From 8 pm, guests will dine inside the Cité's immersive exhibition space in Beaune, enjoying a five-course menu paired with outstanding Bourgogne wines, accompanied by live music.

An exceptional dinner in an unexpected setting

To celebrate one of Beaune's most iconic weekends, the Cité des Climats et vins de Bourgogne is transforming its immersive visitor experience for one night only.

Usually, a journey through Bourgogne's history, landscapes and winemaking heritage, the immersive exhibition space will become an intimate dining venue for the very first time. A rare chance to experience the Cité in a whole new light.

Fine food, remarkable Bourgogne wines and the sound of a live pianist will come together for an unforgettable evening in a warm, atmospheric setting.

Discover a different side of Bourgogne — one memorable evening at a time.

Five courses, five exceptional Bourgogne wines

Created exclusively for this event, a five-course menu showcases the diversity of Bourgogne's appellations through imaginative food-and-wine pairings.

Highlights from the wine selection include:

- Meursault Premier Cru, Charmes, 2019 by Maison Édouard Delaunay, paired with Asian-inspired lightly seared tuna;
- Fixin Premier Cru, Clos de la Perrière, Monopole, 2018 by Domaine Joliet, served alongside melt-in-the-mouth slow-cooked beef.

From the aperitif to dessert, five Bourgogne wines will complement the culinary creations, inviting guests to explore outstanding pairings in a truly unique setting.
